Unauthorised and illegal Constructions as cognisable offence

465. SHRI ASWANI KUMAR: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether unauthorised and illegal construction have been declared congnisable offence in Delhi and the police have to act immediately, making arrest, if necessary;

(b) what are the salient features of the new law and rules made thereunder; and

(c) whether in the interest of effectively discouraging unauthorised and illegal constructions Government propose to give wide publicity to the new legal provisions through newspaper, advertisements as well as radio and T.V., if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI DALBIR SINGH): (a) Yes, Sir. The police can arrest persons induldging in unauthorised construction at the instance of an officer not below the rank of Director of Delhi Development Authority|Deputy Commissioner in Delhi Municipal Corporation appointed by the Lt. Governor of Delhi or the Secretary, New Delhi Municipal Committee in respect of areas in their jurisdiction.

(b) The salient features of the amended law are:—

(i) unauthorised construction would be cognizable offence, providing for punishment (a) of rigorous imprisonment upto three years for setting up an unauthorised colony without a layout plan sanctioned by the competent authority, and (b) simple imprisonment upto the six months and fine upto Rs. 5.000|- or both for individual cases of unauthorised construction;

(ii) construction materials and other aids being used in unauthorised construction may be seized;

(iii) the promises under unauthorised construction may be sealed;

(iv) Appellate Tribunals would be set up, to the exclusion of jurisdiction of civil courts, to deal with cases relating to encroachment on public lands, unauthorised construction title to land and similar matters in Delhi. The Appellate Tribunal shall not make any exparte interim order (whether by way of injunction or say), except as an exceptional measure, if it is satisfied. for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that it is necessary to do so for preventing any loss being caused to the other party which cannot be adequately compensated in money. But such an interim order shall also stand vacated after a period of 14 days from the date on which it is made unless, before the expiry of that period, the Appellate Tribunal confirms or modified that order after giving the other party an opportunity to be heard.

(v) cognizance shall not be taken except at the instance of an officer not below the rank of Director in the Delhi Development Authority, Deputy Commissioner in the Delhi Municipal Corporation or the Secretary, N.D.M.C.

(vi) deviation from the approved building plans which are compoundable under the law shall not be cognizable.

(c) Considerable publicity has already been given in all the leading Newspapers in English, Hindi and Urdu between 10.4.1986 and 12.4.1986.
